

Case Study Recruitment

HANDOVER

Established in March 2004 by a team of experts from Sydney's western suburbs, Azzurri Concrete boasts a proven track record of success in the concrete construction industry. The Epiphany Group has been our steadfast partner in recruitment and human resource services, consistently placing successful applicants across a range of technical and executive level roles. From Accounts Payable positions to our present Chief Financial Officer, The Epiphany Group's contributions have been invaluable to the company.

"The Epiphany Group and Azzurri Concrete have built a strong working partnership based on mutual trust and our collaborative efforts to quickly fill vacant roles with outstanding candidates who excel in their respective positions and completely connect with business values."

Mario D'Angola, Co. Founder, Azzurri Concrete