

Case Study Recruitment

HANDOVER

Renascent is a respected national construction management company located in Australia. The Epiphany Group has partnered with Renascent since 2018. Throughout a period of remarkable growth for our business, The Epiphany Group consistently demonstrated their invaluable market insight and business expertise. Their understanding of our industry trends and organisational culture has proven to be a significant asset, guiding us through the executive recruitment process.

Our partnership with The Epiphany Group has yielded exceptional results. Their solutions tailored to our evolving needs have been crucial in securing the right CEO for Renascent. The Epiphany Group has proven to be a reliable recruitment partner and we are very much looking forward to continuing our successful journey.

Andrew Melville | Joint Managing Director